

write the letters of all your answers here:

D: 1. What is a 'basic stamp'?

- a A special stamp used for mailing letters
- b A robot from Japan
- c A microprocessor, a very tiny computer
- d A map of Eden Gardens

2. What does 'ubiquitous' mean?

- a Big
- b All over the place
- c Electronic
- d Strange

3. How many volts does a cr2020 battery transmit?

- a 9
- b 1
- c 3
- d 0

4. What 4 things are important in this workshop?

- a Sports, health, homework, and art
- b Computers, electricity, art, and community
- c Parents, teens, boys, and girls
- d Spanish, English, Internet, and snacks

5. What is 'technology art'?

- a Only art that moves or has LED lights
- b Posters that have the word 'technology' in them
- c There is no such thing
- d Anything that uses technology to make art

6. What is an example of technology for art?

- a silk-screen machine
- b trees and flowers
- c sports
- d a small house

write the letters of all your answers here:

D: 1. What is a 'basic stamp'?

- a A special stamp used for mailing letters
- b A robot from Japan
- c A microprocessor, a very tiny computer
- d A map of Eden Gardens

2. What does 'ubiquitous' mean?

- a Big
- b All over the place
- c Electronic
- d Strange

3. How many volts does a cr2020 battery transmit?

- a 9
- b 1
- c 3
- d 0

4. What 4 things are important in this workshop?

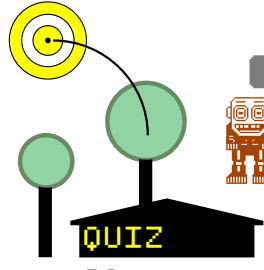

- a Sports, health, homework, and art
- b Computers, electricity, art, and community
- c Parents, teens, boys, and girls
- d Spanish, English, Internet, and snacks

5. What is 'technology art'?

- a Only art that moves or has LED lights
- b Posters that have the word 'technology' in them
- c There is no such thing
- d Anything that uses technology to make art

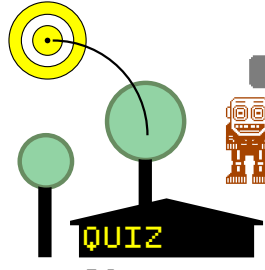

6. What is an example of technology for art?

- a silk-screen machine
- b trees and flowers
- c sports
- d a small house

name _____

please fill each correct answer bubble

name _____

please fill each correct answer bubble